THE ORIGINAL SANTA FE WHISKEY IS AN
UNABASHEDLY ORIGINAL SINGLE MALT.

Bottled in Bond: one spirit, one season, one distillery; aged in oak barrels for at least four years.

This spirit is carefully handcrafted from mesquitekilned malted barley. Patient, traditional aging in new American White Oak and used bourbon barrels makes for a Single Malt that is rich and complex.

The Original Santa Fe Whiskey Bottled in Bond
Single Malt is unique and timeless, with a guarantee of quality and authenticity.

SANTA FE'S LOCAL DISTILLERY

The spirit is different at 7,000 feet. Distilled at the foot of the Sangre de Cristos, Santa Fe Spirits delivers the soul of the Southwest in every sip.
